GOLFINO SUPPORTS FUTURE STARS

We are committed to support the young generation of female and male golfers in their quest for excellence in this wonderful and competitive sport. We enjoy being in touch with young golfers and following the progress of their careers. Below we have the pleasure of introducing some of them.

Enrico di Nitto is a PGA Golf Professional from Italy. Enrico is the highest Italian ranked in the Alps Tour Order of Merit this season. In 2015 the young man recorded a win on home soil when he lifted the trophy in the Colli Berici Open. This season he already earned two places on the podium: finishing third in Ein Bay Open in Egypt in February and holing a brilliant put on the last hole at the Tunisian Open to finish second. (Photo: Tristan Jones)

Kevin Hesbois is from Belgium and a Member of the Belgium National Team. He started playing golf as an eleven year old. In 2015 he was winner of the International Maastricht Open and now his dream is of competing with the best golfers in the world, earning a firm place among them. GOLFINO wishes Kevin good luck! (Photo: Kevin Hesbois)

Emily Collins is a professional golfer on the LPGA's Symetra Tour and recent graduate from the University of Oklahoma. Emily resides in Dallas, Texas. She started playing golf competitively at age 10. Her resumé includes: 3-time U.S. women's amateur participant, 2011 U.S. women's open participant, 2012 Texas women's amateur champion, and 2014 Illinois women's open champion. GOLFINO is sure, there's more to come for Emily! (Photo: Emily Collins)

Here the young Ladies Team of Golf Klub Braunschweig is sending greetings. They play in the 2. Bundesliga of Germany, showing how well you can play in stylish GOLFINO. (Photo: Dr. Michael Westermann)

China National Junior Team

In 2014 GOLFINO became the official and exclusive apparel sponsor of China's National Junior Team. The team took part in the 2015 World Junior Golf Team Championship in Japan. Jin Cheng, who now plays in the senior China National Team, won the Asia Pacific Amateur Championship in 2015 and earned a place in the 2016 US Masters!
