Panoramas on the estuary of the Seine, Garenne castle, forest on the hill with a beautiful beech forest, church with ex-votos marine ...

- 1 Beside the boat, facing the Seine, go right to go along the river upstream. After the lighthouse, leave the pier to follow a dirt track along the estuary of the Risle.
- 2 At the mouth of the Risle, continue to the right and go along the canal back to the port of Berville / mer.
- 3 Cross the dam, then take immediately left in the landscape to discover the third boat "Belle de Seine".
- 4 Back on the tar, turn to the left following the GR straight.
- 5 At the top of the hill, after the castle of Garenne, cross the RD 312 to take a hollow path that borders the town of Conteville.
- 6 Turn right and then immediately left onto the small road with ditches. Turn right at the larger road.
- 7 At the junction, turn right and then, in the countryside, take the path on the left, cross the road of Judea and go up to the forest.
- 8 At the top, turn right to get into the woods. Take the road on the right then quickly find a path on the left lined with beautiful beech trees. Continue straight after the gate.
- 9 At the junction with the GR 223, turn right towards the pine forest, then, in the clearing, follow the path down to Berville and offer a superb panorama.
- 10 At the bottom, continue straight, then take the small path on the left. Follow on the right the departmental road then take the road left down to the Seine.
- 11 At Calvary, turn left and immediately right to the Virgin to take a path that sneaks between the old fishermen's houses. Follow the canal to the left then turn right to find the edge of the Seine.
