Classified historical monument, the old lighthouse of the nineteenth century (34m high) guided navigation on the river Seine. Panoramic views on the estuary, castle of the Pommeraye with its wooded park, chapel, miraculous source and washhouse of Carbec, Christian cross and pond of Inglemare.

- Back to the church, go right towards the subdivision. At the end of the impasse, enter the path that goes around the cemetery.
- At the exit of the wood, follow the GR 223 on the right. Climb to the crossroads that you cross to the left. Take the small road on the right of the calvary towards the old lighthouse.
- After the lighthouse, take the hollow path opposite which passes near a pretty pond. Back on the road, continue straight along the Grestain woods. Stay on the well groomed path and turn right towards the exit of the wood.
- At the crossroads, go down to the left towards Carbec, then take on the left the way of Epinette which embraces broad views on the estuary. At the bottom, turn right onto the small road that runs along the magnificent castle park Pommeraye.
- Go right in front of the castle to the wash and the chapel of Carbec. After this refreshing break, continue the ascent by the small road to the left after the laundry. And enjoy the views of the estuary by returning once you arrive at the path lined with beautiful ash trees.
- At the top, turn left on a small road and go straight on at the crossroads then take the path to the right that crosses the plain across the fields.
- At the Inglemare pond, turn right twice towards the village of Fatouville. At the sight of the first houses, turn right.
- At the Virgin of the missions (polychrome statue), turn left and immediately right. 200 meters of hollow road further, turn left twice to find the village square.
