- 1 Back to the Saint-Pierre church, take the road that goes to the left, then turn on the right, cross the Vilaine on a wooden bridge.
- 2 At the exit of the hollow way, follow the small road to the left then go straight to the forest path. Climb through the woods and cross the main road.
- 3 Once up, turn right and take the path on your left.
- 4 Turn right to the small road and then take the path crossing the countryside. Once again on a paved road, turn right.
- 5 At the next junction, turn right and take the track which comes down on your left. On the other side of the valley, continue straight on in the hamlet. After the path with panoramic views, continue straight on the small road.
- 6 Follow the main road for 100m to the left then turn right on the first path. At the top follow the small road straight ahead.
- 7 At the junction, turn left and then right again to find a path. At the crossroads, turn right.
- 8 Take the small road to the left then immediately right to cross the plain by a path always straight.
- 9 At the fork, turn right and then go down on the right by the small road called Charrière Bardel which brings you back to the village of Saint-Pierre du Val.
