

The Val Durand trail

Difficulty

St Maclou

7.9Kms

Castle of St Maclou the countryside
(17th century), landscape alternating the plain agricultural, forest and valley of Val Durand sources and wash-house , monumental calvary.

- 1 In front of the school and the picnic area, go left towards the countryside and the Château de Saint-Maclou-la-Campagne.
- 2 At the end of the long straight, turn left and cross the countryside straight ahead.
- 3 Cross the RD 675 (beware of the traffic) and follow the small road straight into the plain.
- 4 Take the path straight between forest and bocage. Follow the main path that draws a large S, then continue straight ahead.
- 5 At the crossroads, turn left to go down to the valley of Val Durand. At the bottom, follow the road to the left then go right on the other side.
- 6 At the top, turn left and follow the small road. Go down straight into the impasse to cross the valley and then continue straight to cross a small wood.
- 7 Back on the tar, go up to the right towards the village. At the cemetery, turn right at the Rue du Calvaire, then left at the Calvary.
- 8 At the exit of the road, turn on the right, then slightly on the left by the small path that brings you back to the village.
