Forest alley, large wash-house and covered fountain of Saint Helier, passing in a typical court and half-timbered houses.

In the village: Church of St. Helier XIIIth century with a exceptional set of 19 glass windows signed Décorchemont (free audioguide tour)

YELLOW TRAIL MARKERS

- 1 Back to the tourist office, go to the right to pass the church (first stop to admire the stained glass)
- 2 Cross the square with the water jets (place of the General Leclerc) and take the road of Cormeilles. In front of the school turn right to pass the primary school, then left at the crossroads and immediately turn right at the fork. Cross the subdivision straight ahead.
- 3 At the end of the street, turn right to find a hollow path at the end of the impasse. At the edge of the forest, turn right and follow straight ahead the forest path overlooking the valley.
- 4 Before the main road, go down the path on the left (return to the laundry). At the tarmac, keep going down to the right until you reach the Saint Helier wash house.
- 5 After a refreshing stop, take the same path as on the way and go up to the forest path from above (point 4). Follow the main road towards the village on the sidewalk behind by the guardrails.
- 6 At the junction with Rue Bertinière, turn left to cross the Departmental Road (beware of traffic), then in front, continue Rue Michel de Saint-Pierre.
- 7 At the crossroads, turn right in the Rue des Franches Terres, then take the path on the right.
- 8 At the end of the road, turn right then cross the Liberation Street to go to the central square on the right sidewalk.
