

L'Ancienne Poste & Le Logis du Receveur

General informations

Located in the heart of Trouville-sur-Mer a few meters from the beach and all amenities, the former post office Trouville has become a luxury loft of 300 sqm.

This Art Deco-style building designed by the architect Pierre Chirol, in the 1930s, is classified as an historical monument. Completely restored and redecored, combining old and modern with classified elements and contemporary furniture, it offers all the comfort of an exceptional place.

For a stay under the sign of well-being and relaxation, a sauna is at your disposal.

Seaside resort of Côte Fleurie, located 2 hours from Paris, Trouville-sur-Mer owes its reputation to the charm of its fishing port, the beauty of its long sandy beach and the richness of its architectural heritage.
